Curwch fflw – mynnwch y brechlyn	Mae staff cartrefi gofal sydd â chyswllt cleient rheolaidd yn gymwys i gael brechlyn fflw'r GIG am ddim yn eu fferyllfa gymunedol. Argymhellir bod gweithwyr iechyd a gofal cymdeithasol sydd â gofal uniongyrchol i gleifion / cleientiaid yn cael brechiad blyneddol i amddiffyn eu hunain a'r rhai sydd yn eu gofal. Dylai gweithwyr gofal iechyd gael eu brechlyn fflw trwy eu cyflogwr. Mae gennych gyfrifoldeb i amddiffyn eich cleifion rhag haint. Mae hyn yn cynnwys brechu rhag fflw. Mae brechu gweithwyr iechyd a gofal cymdeithasol hefyd yn helpu i leihau lefel absenoldebau salwch ac yn cyfrannu at gadw'r GIG a'r gwasanaethau gofal i redeg. Mae hyn yn arbennig o bwysig wrth ymateb i bwysau gaeaf. Rhaid i gyflogwyr gofal iechyd, gan gynnwys contractwyr gofal sylfaenol, fynd ati i hyrwyddo buddion cadarnhaol brechu rhag y fflw i weithwyr trwy roi gwybodaeth gytbwys a ffeithiol gywir i staff mewn modd amserol, ac annog eu staff cymwys i gael eu brechu.	https://icc.gig.cymru/gwasanaethau-a-thimau/curwch-ffliw/gweithwyr-iechyd-a-gofal/	Beat flu – get the vaccine	Care home staff with regular client contact are eligible for a free NHS flu vaccine at their community pharmacy. Domiciliary care workers are eligible for a free NHS flu vaccine at their community pharmacy. Healthcare workers should get their flu vaccine via their employer. NHS Health and social care workers with direct patient/client contact are recommended to have annual vaccination to protect themselves and those in their care. You have a responsibility to protect your patients/clients from infection. This includes vaccination against flu. Vaccinating health and social care workers also helps reduce the level of sickness absences and contributes to keeping the NHS and care services running. This is particularly important when responding to winter pressures. Health care employers, including primary care contractors, must actively promote the positive benefits of flu vaccination to workers by giving staff balanced and factually correct	https://phw.nhs.wales/service-s-and-teams/beat-flu/health-and-care-workers/
