Safeguarding Week 2026: Hidden Harm in Our Communities

Safeguarding Week is back from 9th until 13th November 2026, and this year we're shining a light on Hidden Harm in Our Communities.

Join us for a range of online sessions exploring important safeguarding issues, including exploitation, domestic abuse, suicide and self-harm, professional curiosity, self-neglect and hoarding, spiking and more.

It's a great opportunity to learn, build your knowledge and help strengthen safeguarding across our communities.

Don't miss out. Explore the programme and book your place today: CTMSB Events Programme

Let's learn, share and help shine a light on hidden harm together.

Bawso Training Brochure and Training Offer

Please see below links to Bawso's training brochure for 2026/27 which outlines their nine CPD-accredited training courses, available both online and face-to-face.

As a specialist Black and Minority Ethnic (BME) organisation, Bawso has been supporting survivors and communities for over 30 years. Their expertise is rooted in addressing the complex and intersecting typologies of abuse, including forced marriage, honour-based abuse, female genital mutilation, and human trafficking, enabling them to deliver informed, culturally competent training and support services.

There is also a link below to details of Bawso's current Buy One, Get One Free training offer. When you purchase any of these training sessions, you can receive the 'Working Effectively with People with NRTPF' session free of charge.

Prevent Duty Training

Free Home Office Prevent Duty Training Available

Professionals working across safeguarding, education, health, local authorities, policing and criminal justice are encouraged to access the Home Office's free Prevent Duty Training.

The training provides an introduction to the Prevent Duty and helps learners understand the threat posed by extremism and terrorism, recognise signs that someone may be vulnerable to radicalisation, and understand how to make informed referrals and access available support.

Prevent forms part of the UK's wider counter-terrorism strategy, CONTEST, and aims to safeguard individuals who may be susceptible to radicalisation through early intervention and support.

The training is available online and can be completed at your own pace.

Training Needs Analysis

The Safeguarding Board has collaborated with the regional VAWDASV Advisor and Social Care Workforce Development Teams to complete a Training Needs Analysis to help identify safeguarding training priorities for professionals within the region.

Please could you kindly complete the below Surveys relevant to your role as either a staff member or an Organisational Lead Officer:

- VAWDASV Training Needs Assessment for Cwm Taf Morgannwg \(Staff Survey\) – Fill in form
- VAWDASV Regional Training Needs Assessment \(CTM\) Organisation Survey – Fill in form

The deadline for submission is Monday, 5th October.

Group D Learning and Development Needs Questionnaire

As part of the ongoing work to support the implementation of the National Safeguarding Training, Learning and Development Standards and Framework, Social Care Wales is seeking feedback on future learning and development needs for Group D practitioners across Wales. Please take a few minutes to complete the questionnaire using the link below:

Group D Learning and Development: Feedback from Regional Safeguarding Boards

The questionnaire explores:

- Group D roles and responsibilities
- Learning and development priorities
- Preferred approaches to training and learning opportunities

Please submit responses by Friday 25 September.

The feedback received will help inform future discussions and planning around Group D learning and development, ensuring that any future learning offer reflects regional needs and priorities.
